

TURNER HOUSE SALON SERIES PRESENTS

OUTSIDER ART

A panel discussion and pop-up exhibition of art and artists who work on the fringe and far outside the academic/social structure of the artworld.

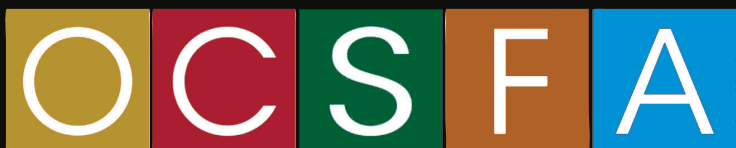

Picture credit: Cornelius Brackens, "My Dream Farm Life", collection of Scott Chase and Debra Witter.

Artists Bill Haveron (nationally exhibited and represented by Kirk Hopper Fine Art) and Andy Don Emmons (contemporary folk art) will discuss the rich traditions and curiosities of outsider art. Giovanni Valderas (Director, Kirk Hopper Fine Art) will moderate. Cherished examples of art from private collections will be on display.

THURS MAY 10
7:30 • 9:30

DOORS OPEN AT 7:00
PROGRAM STARTS AT 7:30

OAK CLIFF SOCIETY OF FINE ARTS

T U R N E R H O U S E

committed to the arts & community

Sponsored by Lisa Peters
Caliber Home Loans

Catered by Chef Justo Blanco

TICKETS FOR NON-MEMBERS $20 | MEMBERS & STUDENTS $15 | 401 NORTH ROSEMONT AVENUE DALLAS 75208 | WWW.TURNERHOUSE.ORG